

Candido - Abridged Version (Spanish Edition)

Tomandole el pelo a la humanidad. La vision del mundo que tuvo Voltaire debio haber sido muy risuena, ya que su obra es un conjunto de ironias y de humor que va de lo escabroso a lo filosofico. Lo notable es que todo esto estuvo al servicio de ideas, en las cuales el tono satirico sirivieron para encauzar y enseñar al mundo hacia algo mejor. La historia de Candido, de su amada pero no muy pura Cunegunda y del optimista profesor Pangloss, quien opinaba que vivimos en el mejor de los mundos, a pesar de que todas las experiencias le dicen exactamente lo contrario. Candido de Voltaire es pues, ademas de una obra con hondo contenido una de las piezas maestras del humor negro, y eso se refleja en la lectura que de esta creacion hace Laura Garcia, la conocidsa artista de teatro y de television. Pulling humanitys leg: The vision of the world that Voltaire had should have been very smiling, since his work is a collection of irony and humor that goes from the rough to the philosophical. The remarkable thing is that all was to the service of ideas, in which the satirical tones served to channel and teach the world towards something better. The history of Candide, of his darling but not very pure Cunegunda and of the optimistic teacher Pangloss, who believes that we live in the best of all possible worlds, in spite of the fact that all experiences showed him exactly the opposite. Candide by Voltaire is, besides a book with deep meanings, one of the master pieces of black humor, and it is reflected in this reading by Laura Garcia, the well known artist of theatre and television.
