

Fire and Smoke

The trouble didn't begin until Lisa's egotistical older stepbrother Mark threw his illegal beer kegger for the whole high school in the old abandoned cemetery out on County Line Road. Instead of taking his steady girlfriend, he showed up with just about the most stuck-up of all the cheerleaders in school, and when his girlfriend came looking for him, he made a point of being all over the pom-pom girl like a bad rash, just to upset her for no reason at all. Then his brother, Lisa's younger stepbrother Danny, and his band of idiot friends, desecrated the tomb of an ancient seafaring man and stole the man's skull, just as a prank. Lisa tried to make them put it back and close the tomb, but they just laughed and shoved the skull in her face. So she and her best friend Darlene left the party, and on their way down the narrow road packed with cars parked along both sides, Darlene hit a mysterious girl who ran out into the road in front of them and knocked her into the ditch. It was the very next day that the bad things began to happen. People falling through the ground into graves, people getting hit by cars, people breaking their backs at cheerleader practice...almost everyone associated with the kegger was having mysterious accidents, and Lisa alone was trying to put all the puzzle pieces together and figure out what was going on.
