

Coconut Water (The Case Files of Icarus Investigations) (Volume 4)

The team at Icarus Investigations uncover a plot that could lead to war when mysterious shipments are discovered coming from a tropical island. Mysterious sightings of strange vessels have been reported in the waters of the Caribbean Sea. They're connected to smuggling activity by the drug cartels and their new partnership with a sophisticated organized crime syndicate. Galveston and Murphy, as part of a federal task force dealing with this syndicate, are called in to investigate. They uncover an intricate plot that could ultimately push the United States into an all out drug war. The Icarus team uses their trademark, unorthodox detective skills to hunt for the mastermind behind the operation, but what they discover is a shocking revelation about the crime syndicates final and nefarious goal. The latest exciting installment from the Case Files of Icarus Investigations filled with the same amount of fun. Continue the action and adventure in the other Case Files: Flapjack - (Case File #1) Peeking Duck - (Case File #2) Snow Cone - (Case File #3) Coconut Water - (Case File #4)
