

House & Garden (Frenchs Acting Edition S)

2 Comedies / 7m, 7f, extras / Int./Ext. An unprecedented theatre event: two plays take place simultaneously in the same theatre but in different auditoriums. Characters walk off one set and onto the other throughout and yet each portion is a complete theatre experience. In HOUSE, two upper-crust marriages are in hilarious upheaval, the awkward confusion of young love abounds, a devious politician has bizarre ulterior motives land a French film star imbibes one too many drinks. And what is going on in the GARDEN? More hilarity. Note: These two plays MUST be performed simultaneously in by the same cast in adjacent auditoriums. Perhaps his [Ayckbourns] greatest work. An engaging, high precision production.-Daily Telegraph Its audacious, crazy and altogether brilliant.-Times
