

The Savage Dance (Shane Cullaine Book 1)

A beautiful young woman is found dead in a flophouse hotel. The police tag it a drug overdose. Her brother, boxing champion, Jackhammer Boudreaux, isn't buying it. Boudreaux turns to his friend, insurance investigator, Shane Cullaine, for answers. Cullaine quickly discovers an elaborate fortune telling scam, so convincing its taking in members of an Ivy League sisterhood. But as Cullaine uncovers the truth, he jeopardizes the lucrative game. The big earners will not stop at murder to keep the money flowing. It will take all of Cullaine's political connections, his physical prowess, and shrewd knowledge of criminal behavior to keep himself this side of the grave.
