

London Journal: A Guided Tour and Diary of Discovery

Fill in and update this book with all of your favorite London venues and discoveries, and find inspiration for places to go and things to do in the greatest city in the world. Each double-page spread covers a theme, from great hilltop views and secret gardens to romantic ruins and graves and graveyards, and from unspoilt streets to museums of the unexpected. London expert David Long guides you with his own suggestions, leaving you space to note your own finds or simply jot down your thoughts, and Kate Forrester provides beautiful decorative illustrations on every page. The perfect companion for the London visitor, resident, or first-timer, combining both practical advice on where to start looking and the incentive to go on discovering the city for yourself. You'll be sure to fall in love with London for the first time . . . or all over again.
