

Loser Takes All

Bertram is not a believer in luck. An unambitious accountant, his plans for his second marriage are typically quiet: St. Lukes then two weeks in Bournemouth. But he comes to the attention of Dreuther, the director of his company, who changes Bertrams plans for him: wedding and honeymoon in Monte Carlo, on board his private yacht. Inevitably Bertram visits the casino, and loses. But then his system starts working, and his trouble really begins.
