New Arabian Nights by Robert Louis Stevenson, first published in 1882, is a collection of short stories previously published in magazines between 1877 and 1880. The collection contains Stevensons first published fiction, and a few of the stories are considered by some critics to be his best work, as well as pioneering works in the English short story tradition. Contents The Suicide Club -- The rajahs diamond -- The pavilion on the links -- A lodging for the night: a story of Francis Villon -- The Sire de Maletroits door -- Providence and the guitar.
