

Romance: In Between Two Homelands (Love & Romance Collection Book 1)

Two weeks of studying at the Academy of Arts in Florence during a sabbatical from teaching, have changed her world. From the first moment she has landed in Italy, her life followed the path that appeared in her dreams years before. Lust for life, a surprising inheritance, encounters with people and situations from former lives; all have suddenly materialized into her life following a single magical night. Was this happiness or fate, or a dream come true? The reader is transported to a wonderful journey, swept by a story about the force of boundless love, old family tales, mesmerizing mystery, while as a backdrop are the beautiful accounts of scenery and places, museums and historical sites of Italy.
