

Through the Ghost

Warning: Previously published After high school, Tara Jenkins followed her dreams to New York where she became a plus-size catalog model. Ten years later, she longs for the college education she passed up. When her mother becomes ill, Tara chucks her career and returns to her hometown. She buys a rundown house and begins the process of restoring the house and her life. Then in walks trouble. Brett Chambliss is a contractor. Hes thrown himself into his work to forget about his wife Kelly and daughter Betsy, whom he lost three years ago. When he finds out Tara wants to remodel the grand old house he jumps at the chance to resurrect it, knowing hell be spending his free time with his neighbor Tara. He just needs to forget about vowing to love and honor his wife until he dies. Kelly Chambliss has plans of her own. Cursed to spend eternity in the house next door, she can only watch Brett from a distance. Her unwanted new roommate could be her ticket back into her husbands life. One thing is for sure, if Tara wants Brett shes going to have to go through the ghost to get him.
